Improving Quality Through Self-Study

This comprehensive, full-day session is designed to help program staff improve quality, regardless of current intention to pursue NAEYC Accreditation. NAEYC and NCaeyc are committed to improving the quality of early childhood programs for all children. Self-study is an important step in quality improvement efforts.

For more information,
please visit the NCaeyc
Website at

Join NAEYC staff for a full-day session, focused on using the Self-Study process to guide quality improvements for your early learning program. Over the course of the day, we will:

- outline the 4 Steps of the NAEYC Accreditation process
- clarify the purpose of Self-Study as a path to quality improvement
- share practical advice on planning and structuring the Self-Study
- identify resources available to support a reflective period of Self-Study.

This interactive session features hands-on, small-group activities and opportunities to network with peers. As a participant, you will receive a copy of NAEYC's Early Childhood Program Standards and Accreditation Criteria publication and an exclusive participant manual. A sample tool-kit of NAEYC Accreditation marketing materials will also be provided.
