Early Childhood Research & Practice (ECRP) analyzes a study about the implementation of early learning standards throughout the United States in its report, "Early Learning Standards: Results from a National Survey to Document Trends in State-Level Policies and Practices." Most states have implemented standards for prekindergarten children, and the number of states developing standards for infants and toddlers is rising. <http://ecrp.uiuc.edu/v9n1/little.html>

Illinois Early Learning Standards provides videos for the different learning areas and includes translations into several different languages.
