

Spotlight on Young Children and ASSESSMENT

Each issue of Young Children, NAEYC's award-winning journal, includes a cluster of articles on a topic of special interest and importance to the early childhood community. Most of the selections in this book originally appeared in Young Children, vol. 59, no. 1, in the cluster "Child and Program Assessment: Tools for Reflective Educators." Others were written for this book or come from Beyond the Journal (www.naeyc.org), an online collection of resources that complement and expand on articles found in the journal.
