

NAEYC Assessor System Policy

The reliability of NAEYC's Assessor System is critical to the success of NAEYC Accreditation. NAEYC will develop and maintain procedures regarding required assessor qualifications, selection, conflict of interest, confidentiality, evaluation, termination and retention of Assessors. These procedures support the integrity and reliability of NAEYC Accreditation. The assessor system will include procedures that insure that the assessor core is made up of highly skilled professionals representing diverse groups and the field's multiple sectors.

Approved by Council for NAEYC Accreditation:
Effective Date: September 16, 2006