

Decision Appeals Policy

The NAEYC Council provides a formal appeal process for programs that receive the following decisions from the NAEYC Academy:

1. Deferral, denial, or revocation of Accreditation
2. Denial of Candidacy or Renewal

The appeal process is available to currently accredited programs and programs seeking accreditation. Appeals are made to the Quality Assurance Committee of the Council on NAEYC Accreditation. Revocations of Accreditation resulting from failure to submit an Annual Report in a timely manner are not subject to appeal. The Quality Assurance Committee reviews appeals that meet the established procedures.

Approved by Council for NAEYC Accreditation: February 2012
Effective Date: May 2012
