

2022 Public Policy Forum

Agenda at a Glance

Sunday, February 27 1:00–4:30 pm ET

Program Highlights

- A Federal Conversation: Advancing and Investing in Early Childhood Education Across States, Settings, and Departments
 - Featuring Wendy Chun-Hoon, U.S. Department of Labor, Katie Hamm, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and Roberto Rodriguez, U.S. Department of Education
- In Fellowship: Community and Learning with ECE Advocacy, Policy and Leadership Cohorts
 - Featuring organizers, educators, and parents from CDF's Emerging Leaders program to Family Child Care initiatives to cohorts in Arizona, Maine, and Pennsylvania
- Listening In on State Child Care Leaders: Struggles, Supports, and Successes
 - Featuring state child care administrators and leaders
- A special message from child care champion Senator Patty Murray

... and more!

Monday, February 28 1:00–2:30 pm ET

Program Highlights

- Washington Wins: Bonuses, Benefits, and Beyond
 - Featuring educators, advocates, and state leaders from Washington DC and Washington state talking about major compensation wins for early childhood educators
- Salary Scales: What They Are, Why They Matter, and How You Can Use Them In Your States
 - Featuring national and state advocates and educators from Delaware, Illinois, Minnesota, North Carolina, and Rhode Island

Plus

- More than a dozen on-demand sessions with amazing experts taking on timely topics for you to watch alone or with others on your own time and to meet your own needs and interests
- State team meeting times set up by state team leaders for you to connect with your fellow educators and advocates in your states and communities
- Virtual Congressional visit opportunities and a State of the Union virtual watch party! #SolveChildCare

Thank You to Our Sponsors

